July 2016

Dear Friend,

Dynamics of their testimonies are ever changing. Both men and women live out their new lifestyle in covenant with Jesus Christ. We have been privileged to observe several ex-offenders successfully reintegrate into our post modern society. Here's the story.

During the recent fiscal year (July 2015 – June 2016), our Middle Atlantic Regional Gospel Ministries co-workers have ministered to about 1,500 incarcerated women and men. Not only have we led eleven sinners to their first time profession of faith in Jesus Christ but also we have prayed with many others for their personal rededication to Christian living and public witness. Also in the jails, we have participated in on-site water baptism (emersion) of about forty two inmates. With several returning citizens, MARGM now fields a Returning Citizens Auxiliary of about ten believers. This current collaborative effort has provided limited (1) men's clothing distributions, (2) reentry resource information, and (3) Limited financial stipends -- $700: six individuals and two groups.

MARGM prison team members regularly (monthly and occasionally weekly) serve at three different city and state institutions to minister to inmates. Each co-worker bears his/her expenses, without reimbursement. Such expenditures include food, transportation and lodging (overnight hotel expenses). We travel about 6,560 miles annually, willingly serving our brothers and sisters of multiracial, multiethnic backgrounds. Whether independent Sunday, Sunday chapel worship services, mid-week counseling groups, or week-end teaching sessions, each MARGM co-worker serves with spiritual commitment. The above on-site ministries are in addition to the long distance correspondence via U.S. mail.

Can we do more? Yes! Together we can! Unfortunately, last year three donors decreased their contributions, in addition to two other donors discontinuing their support altogether! Conversely, one donor doubled his monthly contribution. We need your help!

Oftentime we request that You pray for us. Please continue to do so. Secondly, if you know someone who is interested in this facet of gospel ministry, please submit their complete contact information to MARGM and we shall respond with our Welcome Packet. May we count on you?

We covet your prayers!
